Cassandra Ann
wishes to announce
HER NEW ADDRESS:
171-49 Ashby Ave.
Flushing, N.Y. 11358
HER NEW PHONE NUMBER:
(718) 461-4846
P.S. Sheryl Gross can also be reached there.

Excellent news from SWG.
I telephoned her on opening
this wonderful note/letter
On 10/03/84 — I made the call at 8:58 P.M. and we talked for 42 minutes = cost $8.93.
at last she has moved out of her mother's apartment!
Now when I go to NYC, I can stay with SWG. Such good news that she has purchased
"Cassandra Ann."

SWG's note of 11/12/84 is shown on the following page. I shall select a weekend
that she is off and I will go to NYC to see her. The question is — shall I drive
or shall I take the bus?
It makes more sense to drive and it will be more reasonable that way.

It's a large studio in the basement of a big Tudor-style house.
Very charming fireplace (non-working) darkwood, a bar, built-in butcher, etc.
Share a separate entrance with a 31 year old single woman who reminds me of Ellen. Neighborhood is great — no sleep talk at all. Lots of stores.
Bus on the corner to Main St.
Come & visit me. (Cassandra only visits during the day.)

a pleasant surprise visit by JVB on 11/16/84 about 2 PM —
He drove out on the motorcycle. We agreed that at 8 AM on 11/17/84, he & Elaine & the kids would pick me up & we would go and see Big Boy in Nicholson. He left at around 3 PM and not long after that I went into town. I ran into JVB on Salem Avenue. He helped me pull out the dead flowers from the flower boxes & then we moved the display cases in 301 against the wall & re-arranged the room as it was pre-Klimkiewicz. We secured the windows in 301 —

Robert,
I came across this paper as I was moving.
You made it for me when I was going to give a brunch for Annabel's 10th birthday. It gave me a hint, but it is nice paper.
I just wanted you to know some of my weekends
I Sunday off:
weekends
Dec 1, 2, 3
Dec 22, 23, 24, 25
Jan. 12, 13, 14
Sunday (probably) Hope to see
you soon

Jan 20.

more than one of them had a bad rattle; I also made certain that the draper were closed completely to prevent any sun damage to the collection. JVB made for the Mayor a set of keys to the 3rd floor, including 301.
Not ought to please Her Honor. JVB and I worked for about an hour in 301 and then we went our separate ways. He and Elaine never showed up at 8 AM on 11/17/84.
No wood-cutting crew did, however, at 9:30 — to get a load of already cut wood. I thought that they were RGT.
I immediately came in and telephoned JVB at Elaine's. They were sleeping. Just one more instance of JVB's un-dependability. The last thing I wanted was for JVB & Elaine to arrive when the woodcutting crew were on the premises. RGT arrived and he and I left at about 10 AM (when the woodcutting crew left) to see "Big Boy" arrive in Northeastern Pennsylvania. A very pleasant day. I drove.
